Wecan Food Basket Society

The Wecan Food Basket Society is a not-for-profit food security organization that provides healthy food to its members. The program does not have any income-based restrictions or qualifications and is open to everyone. All families, individuals, students and groups are welcome to join!

Annual memberships cost $5, and members place meat ($15) and produce ($10) orders for $25 by the first Friday of every month. The basket then consists of three different cuts of meat, three types of fruit and three varieties of vegetables. We currently have 25 depots throughout Edmonton and area and the pick-up is on the third Thursday or Friday of the month.

For more information, to find a depot near you and pick up hours, please visit www.wecanfood.com or call our office 780-413-4525.

Summer Garden Contest
